Reflection – Vision

Theory part

The reflection of the first steps for a wedding is often a mixture of emotions, images and desires that are still unclear. The goal is to gather your inspirations in order to bring out your wedding style...

Important tips :

When comparing your answers, look for:

- ♥ What you have in common
- ♥ Shared priorities

It becomes the basis of your marriage.

Close your eyes and imagine the scene:

- ♥ You arrive at the venue
- ♥ Your guests are there
- ♥ The music begins
- ♥ The ceremony begins

Then note:

What you see, hear, feel!

This often reveals the real essence of your marriage.

What is the Vision Board Really Used For?

To clarify what you really want

When we talk about marriage, we quickly receive a lot of influences:

- ♥ Pinterest
- ♥ Family
- ♥ Traditions
- ♥ Friends
- ♥ Locations

What marriage is ours?

Not that of others.

Avoiding disagreements in the couple

Often, couples think they want the same thing... but not always.

Example :

Vision
You	Intimate and moving wedding
Spouse. -e	Big party with friends

The table helps you clarify the essential decisions.

To help choose the best location, manage the budget, choose the service providers, etc.

When you visit a venue or talk to a caterer, you may ask yourself: does this fit our vision?

Ex: vision of marriage:

- ♥ Natural
- ♥ User-friendly
- ♥ Single

In this case, a very formal castle with a medieval menu probably won't fit

The exercise allows you to know the ideal place and its theme.

Budget Priority

Marriage is expensive.

The vision makes it possible to clearly identify the positions in which to invest.

Understand the importance of each expense so you can determine where to put the most money and where to put the least.

Ex:

Priority

Excellent

Group or DJ

Top

Larger budget

catering food

atmosphere

Photographer Photos

And reduce elsewhere.

Creating consistency

The most harmonious marriages follow a consistent guideline.

Ex: Vision of the wedding:

♥ Nature / warm / simple

So everything follows:

- ♥ Location: estate or garden
- ♥ Decoration: wildflowers
- ♥ Meal: convivial
- ♥ Lumières : garlands
- ♥ Everything tells the same story

In summary:

The table is used to answer these fundamental questions :

- ♥ What kind of marriage do we really want?
- ♥ What are our priorities?
- ♥ How do you make the right decisions next?

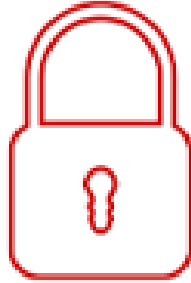

How do you want your guests to feel at your wedding?

Typical answers:

- ♥ Welcomed
- ♥ Amazed
- ♥ Relaxed
- ♥ Celebrating
- ♥ Close to us

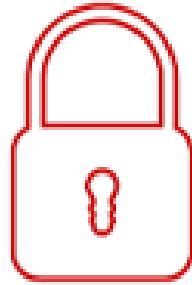

This determines almost everything else.
